Clinical Document Implementation

A CDA document is import section by section, entry by entry. This section seeks to describe the document, section and entry templates which have been explicitly implemented by OpenSHR for either import or export.